

EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP MASTERCLASS

FOR AGING SERVICES PROFESSIONALS

An exclusive experience for ambitious leaders who aspire to lead their organizations at the highest level.

The program aims to refine leadership skills, foster strategic thinking, cultivate valuable professional networks, and equip its participants with the aptitude and confidence required to excel.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

It is suited for executive leaders, newly appointed executives, and those being primed for executive succession. The ideal participant for this program will have a passion for aging services, a proven track record in budget management, operations, organizational strategy development, and team leadership, and a desire to become an exceptional leader.

WHAT TO EXPECT

- Small-cohort experience
- Individual challenges and goals intake meeting
- 4 Crafted Workshop days
- 3 Small-group professional coaching sessions

Program Dates, Workshop Themes and Objectives

THURSDAY
MARCH 6

Virtual, 90 min.

Kickoff

- Learn what sets C-suite executives apart from other leaders – the need for outside-inside perspective and vision, strategic organizational alignment, and the ability to foster transformation, change, and innovation throughout the organization.

The kickoff also includes an overview of the program, program expectations, and allows the cohort to get to know each other as they begin the journey.

MONDAY
MARCH 10

Welcome Reception (6-7:30 p.m.)

TUESDAY
MARCH 11

In-person, full day

Workshop #1: Leading Executive Teams

Building effective senior leadership teams takes thought to identify who makes a great team player and how to hold your team accountable to each other and the success of the organization.

In this workshop, you will:

- Understand how to build an effective leadership team using Patrick Lencioni's Ideal Team Player concept.
- Practice soliciting, receiving, and giving feedback.
- Prepare for performance management conversations and help your leaders prepare for these conversations.
- Identify what you are tolerating, demonstrating, and celebrating and create a plan based specifically on what your team needs from you as a leader.

TBD

Triad Coaching Session (Virtual)

TUESDAY
MAY 6

In-person, full day

Workshop #2: Strategic Planning & Decision Making

Executive leaders are asked to think strategically, make important operational and financial decisions, and partner with governing boards and other external community organizations.

In this workshop, you will:

- Understand how to kick off, manage, and execute a strategic planning process with your team.
- Learn a process to make clear operational and financial decisions.
- Strategize on ways to better partner with governing boards.
- Identify how to build a network of strategic community partnerships.

TBD

Triad Coaching Session (Virtual)

TUESDAY
JULY 15

In-person, full day

Workshop #3: Leading Change and Innovation

The only constant is change. Every executive leader faces the difficulties required to manage and communicate through change across the entire organization while also fostering innovation and welcoming new ideas that bring about even more change.

In this workshop, you will:

- Leverage innovation personas to promote creativity with your teams, during your meetings, and when finding solutions.
- Learn about the Vision, Alignment, and Execution (VAE) model through the Work of Leaders Everything DiSC assessment and understand your strengths and areas of improvement for leading through change.
- Discover how to communicate with clarity and build cohesion through aligning, inspiring, and motivating the entire organization.

TBD

Triad Coaching Session (Virtual)

TUESDAY
SEPT. 9

In-person, full day

Workshop #4: Organizational Culture and Visioning

One of the greatest tasks of an executive leader is to foster and protect what makes each organization special: its culture. But first, we must identify or confirm the core values and actions that make us unique, then share with the rest of the community.

In this workshop, you will:

- Identify values and how they manifest through the behaviors and actions of every employee.
- Understand a culture map framework and identify how to incorporate that into your organizational culture.
- Determine criteria for what strategic and community partnerships pair well with identified values and mission statement.
