

Technology Conference - April 30, 2025 Tabletop Displays and Demo Opportunities Heritage Center of Brooklyn Center

Overview

We are seeking vendors with innovative technology solutions applicable to aging services settings to exhibit and/or present at the LeadingAge Minnesota Technology Conference.

The conference is designed to allow providers to learn about technologies that save time, support the workforce, and provide increased resident safety and quality of care all in one place. The event is designed so participants can freely move between short Solutions Stage presentations and the adjacent vendor area where engaged attendees can get a deep introduction to technologies and how to successfully implement them in their settings.
